

Firearms Instructors needed

St Marys Indoor Shooting Centre is the largest indoor range in Sydney and operates 25m and 50m ranges, a retail facility that also provides training, Try Shooting and storage facilities.

The Centre is open 7 days a week, has on-site parking and during its 22 years of operation has established a loyal and regular client base.

We are currently looking for an experienced Firearms Instructor to deliver our pistol and rifle safe handling courses and Try Shooting packages. These courses are predominately held weeknights and weekends. This is a permanent parttime position. Previous training experience is essential as is holding an NSW firearms licence for a minimum of 3 years.

To be successful in this role you will ideally have:

- A current NSW Firearms licence A, B and H for a minimum of three years
- Previous training or teaching experience with supporting credentials
- Good knowledge of firearms legislation and licensing procedures
- Excellent customer service skills
- Good knowledge of firearms
- Prepared to work evenings and weekends
- Own transport

To be considered for this role please forward an application detailing your skills and experience in the identified areas, along with your resume to: ali@stmarys.ssaa.org.au
